What will I study in this course?

GCSE French is explored through a range of engaging and relatable themes which are relevant to you:

- My personal world
- Lifestyle and wellbeing
- My neighbourhood
- Media and technology
- Studying and my future
- Travel and tourism

How will I be assessed?

For GCSE French there are four examinations at the end of Year 11 in Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing. Each exam is worth 25% of the total grade.

Students are entered for either Higher tier (Grades 9–4) or Foundation tier (Grades 5–1).

What will this qualification lead to?

A GCSE in French opens doors to endless opportunities. Learning a language will not only broaden your horizons, allowing you to travel more easily, experience new cultures and communicate with a wealth of people, but also give you numerous transferable skills making you more employable. Many universities and employers now require you to have a qualification in a foreign language. Above all, learning a language is a fun experience and a skill that will stay with you for life.
