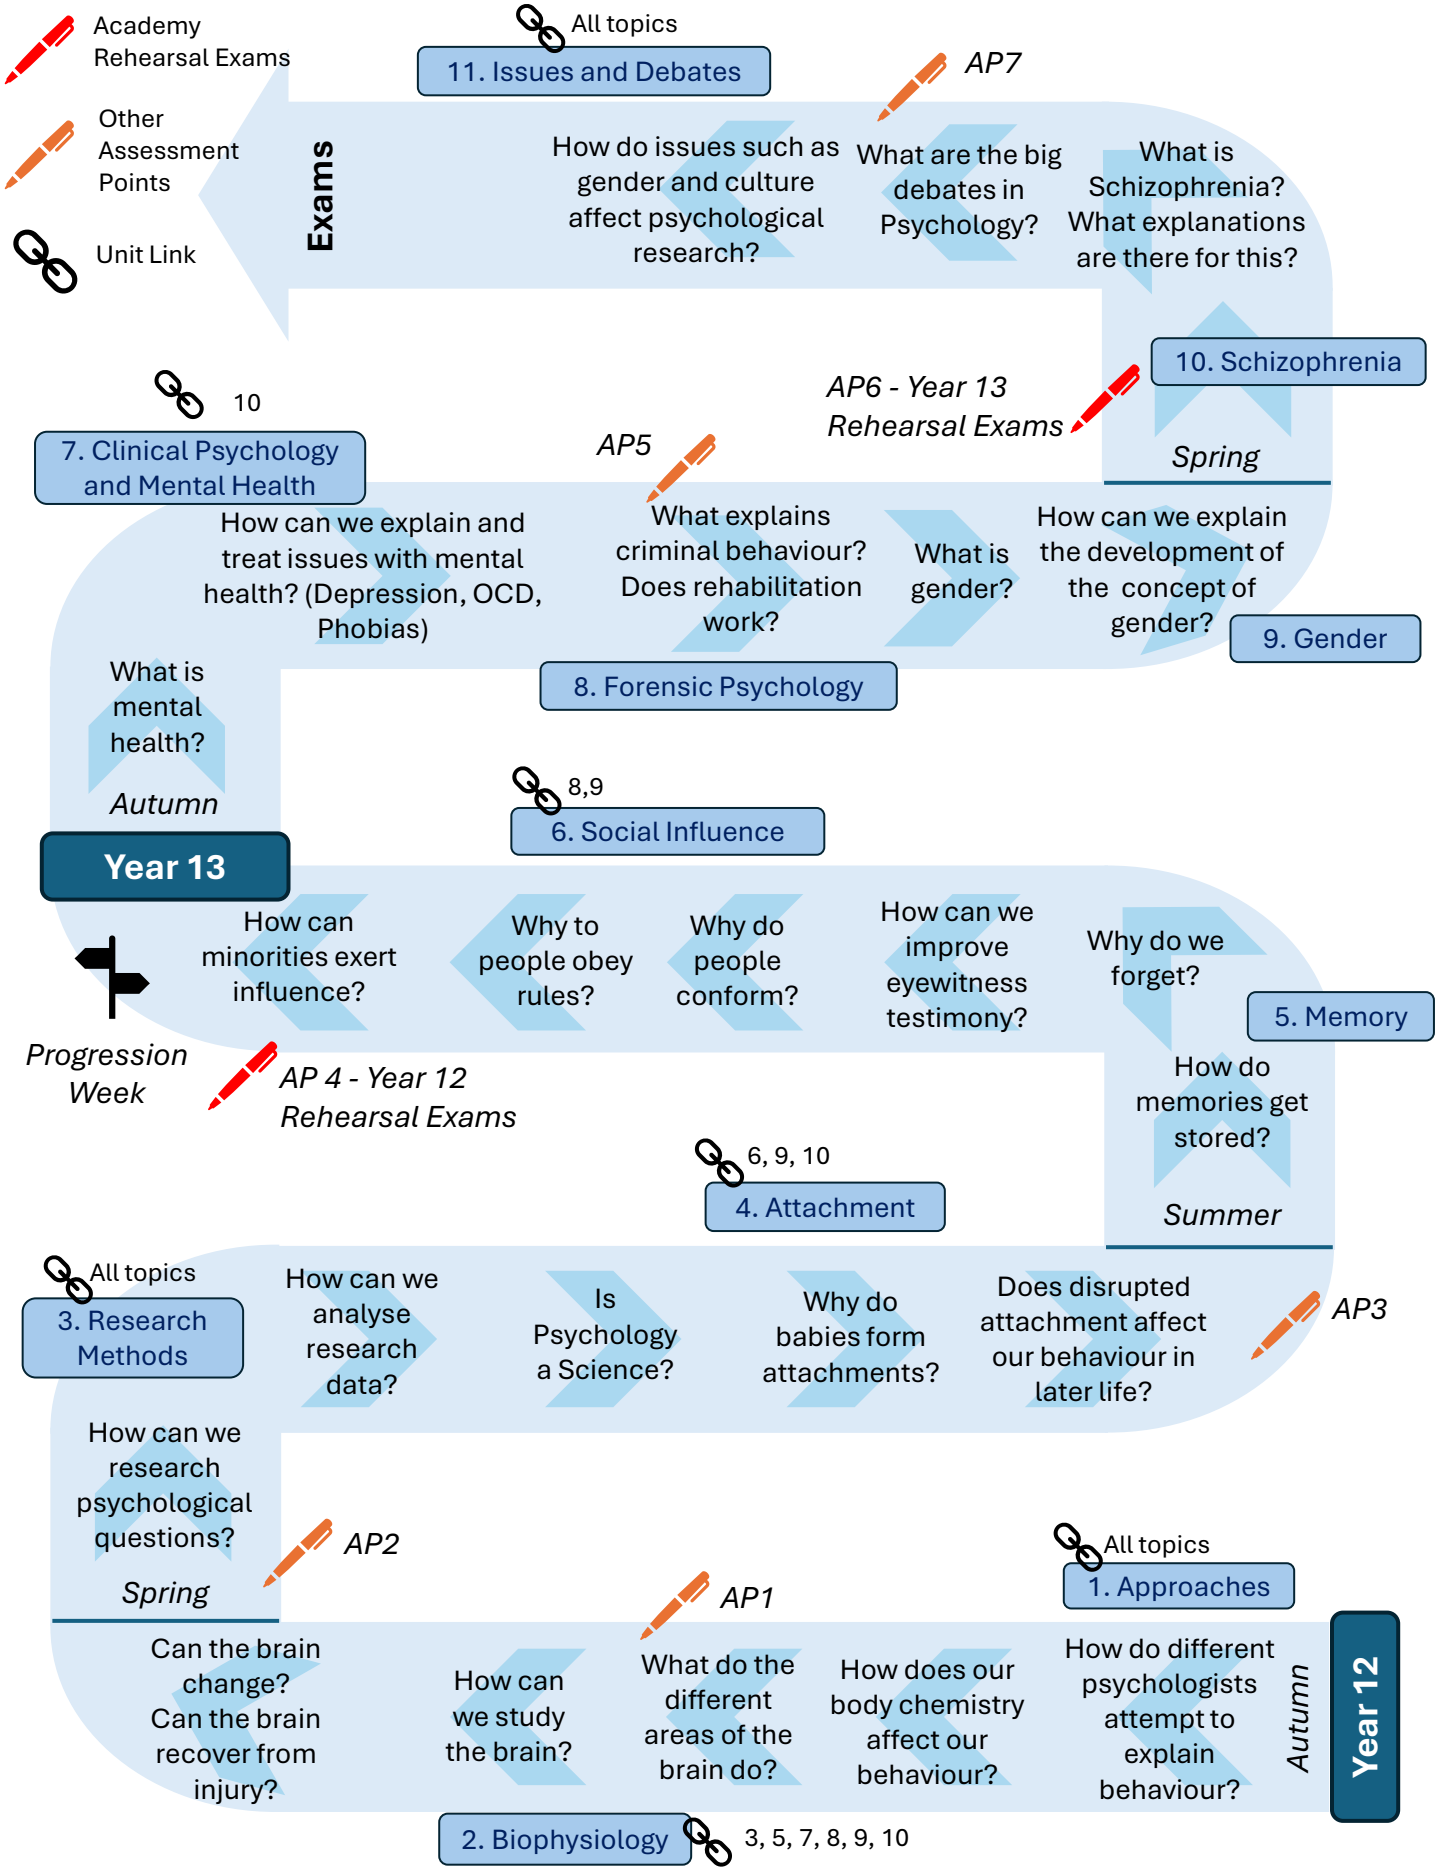
Curriculum Map: AQA A level Psychology

THE KING'S ACADEMY
Emmanuel Schools Foundation


AQA A-level Psychology is crucial for understanding human behaviour, mental processes, and research methods. It covers topics like social influence, memory, attachment, and clinical psychology, and students delve deep into biopsychology and issues and debates. The curriculum fosters critical analysis, empathy, and prepares students for diverse pathways.